Description

Excellence is a pivot table around which BANKA Machines revolves. We are promoted by the professional approach with over three decades of vast experience in the sector of manufacturing and supplying Industrial Machines. High emphasis on International Standards quality made us widely recognized both within the country and worldwide.

Welding Machines does the fabrication process to joint materials like metals or thermoplastics by applying temperature. Techniques like brazing and soldering which do not melt the base metal are used for the welding process.

Arc Welding Machines carries out the type of Arc welding process which uses a welding power supply in order to create an electric arc among electrode and the base material to melt the metal at the welding point. It can be done using Direct Current (DC) or Alternate Current (AC) and consumable or non-consumable electrodes.

BANKA's Regulator Type ARC Welding Machine are cost saving and most economical give the features like rigidity, high precision value, competitive prices, etc. We offer a wide range of products for ARC Welding Machines. Our products are well compatible with International Standards. The graded material is used for manufacturing of this machine which ensures long life.

BANKA's Regulator Type ARC Welding Machine also have an added feature of power saving. It reduces power consumption by 30% to 70%. This machine is well compatible to weld all varieties of Electrodes. It also gives protection against voltage problems and hence it ensures smooth operations.

BANKA's Regulator Type ARC Welding Machine being rigid ensures high life span which also reduces maintenance cost.

It is adaptive to power saving that assists in increasing higher yield value return from the machinery.

The accuracy standards and economical price of this machine give an edge in acquiring higher productivity and cost effectiveness.
