Description

Overview

The Digital Vernier Caliper is a high-precision measuring instrument designed for fast, accurate, and convenient measurement of outside dimensions, inside dimensions, depths, and step measurements. Equipped with a clear LCD display, it provides instant digital readings, eliminating manual interpretation and reducing the possibility of reading errors. Manufactured from high-quality hardened stainless steel, it offers exceptional durability, corrosion resistance, and long-lasting accuracy for industrial applications.

Common Uses

The Banka Digital Vernier Caliper is widely used for measuring shafts, holes, pipes, plates, machine components, fabricated parts, and precision-engineered products during manufacturing, inspection, maintenance, and quality control operations. It is an essential measuring instrument for machine shops, CNC machining centers, automotive industries, fabrication units, tool rooms, educational institutes, quality control laboratories, and precision engineering facilities, where fast, accurate, and repeatable digital measurements are critical for maintaining high standards of precision and product quality.
